

Benefit Banks

Friday, April 13, 2018

8:00 AM – 11:00 AM

In the Parenting Room (194)
at Central Elementary

Details: Central Elementary is hosting Benefit Banks for parents. This event will help parents with employment, financial planning, tax return filing, applications for Medicaid and SNAP, and TANF (formerly family independence).

Benefit Bank

No longer do you have to figure out what benefits you qualify for and then wait in line at different agencies to apply

In a one-stop web program we can help you test your qualifications and apply for benefits, including: SNAP (food stamps), TANF (welfare), Medicare, and Medicaid.

Workforce Development

With online job applications, resumes, cover letters, and interviews, breaking into the job market can be stressful.

Let our counselors provide you with helpful tips and one-on-one aid as we help you find employment that is right for you.

Money Smart

Whether you are struggling with credit card debt, overdraft fees, or why you should consider opening a bank account in the first place, we are here.

In classes and one-on-one consultations, let us provide you with resources and advice to help make your money work for you.

VITA

During the tax season, our office prepares free State and Federal tax returns for the elderly, those with limited English-speaking skills, and clients earning less than ~~99,000~~ $64,000 a year.

Save money, live better with Volunteer Income Tax Assistance.
